Auditorium Programmes Prove Popular Today is the last chance to see the excellent vaudeville bill that is occupring the boards at the Auditorium for the last half of this week. As a spe-Cal inducement to the little folks the management are offering a special eblidren's matinee today, at which all children under the age of 14 will be

The present programme consists of such favorite acts as the Landry Bros. Herculean athletes, in a wonderful display of muscular development: the original Blue Jays, Bryant and Saville, who look as if they had just stepped down from one of the tramp posters made famous by the Blue Jay Co. They de a comedy musical act that is a scream. Harvey and Welch, a pair of German comedians, hand out a line of funny conversation and perodies that bring down the house. Black, Batley and Block, a tric of clever colored and Block, a trio of clever colored singers and dancers, make the fourth item on as classy a programme as has been seen here for some time.

Another good bill will be on hand for Monday, headed by the Whitman Bros. In their epectacular novelty Down in the Jungle. Space will not permit further description of Monday a show, but the public may rest assured that those who attend will consider the time and money well spent. The motion pictures shown at this theater as as far ahead of the usual thing shown elsewhere as of the usual thing shown elsewhere as an electric arc is shead of a candle.

The Mystery of Lonely Gulch, the thrilling western feature picture at the Breed theater today, is one of the most inusual pictures of its kind ever made It is a brilliant and sensational cowand interest up to very last moment, when the grand climax solves the mys-
